Non-Exclusive Rights

Rights granted to the UEA Thesis Repository through this agreement are entirely non-exclusive. I am free to publish the Work in its present version or future versions elsewhere and no ownership is assumed by the repository when storing the work.

Permissions given to the repository

The UEA E-Theses Repository administrators may, without changing content, translate the Work to any medium or format for the purpose of future preservation and accessibility.

I understand that work deposited in the UEA E-Theses Repository will be accessible to a wide variety of people and institutions - including automated agents - via the World Wide Web and that an electronic copy of my thesis may also be included in the UK Electronic Theses Online Service (EThOS).

I understand that the UEA E-Theses Repository reserves the right to remove the Work for any professional, administrative or legal reason. Equally, I may request the Work is removed at any point in the future.

I understand that once the Work is deposited, a citation to the Work will always remain visible, although the author retains the right to update the Work.

Depositors Declaration

I agree as follows:

- That I have the authority of the authors to make this agreement and to hereby give the UEA E-Theses Repository administrators the right to make available the Work in the way described above.
- That I have exercised reasonable care to ensure that the Work is original, and does not to the best of my knowledge break any UK law or infringe any third party's copyright or other Intellectual Property Right, or other rights whatsoever.
- That the disc or memory stick deposited with the PGR Service contains a readable file of your thesis that is the same in all respects as the final approved and accepted print copy.
- The administrators of the UEA E-Theses Repository do not hold any obligation to take legal action on behalf of the Depositor, or other rights holders, in the event of breach of intellectual property rights, or any other right, in the material deposited.

Disclaimer

While every care will be taken to preserve the Work, the UEA E-Theses Repository is not liable for loss or damage to the Work or other data while it is stored within the repository.
